Waynesburg Prosperous & Beautiful

QUARTERLY NEWSLETTER

NEW MAIN STREET MANAGER ANNOUNCED!

Waynesburg Prosperous and Beautiful has named Deborah Mack to manage the local Main Street program. Debbie has a unique combination of employment experience that includes retail and mall management, marketing, public relations, business development and operations management. WP&B Board President, Jeanine Henry notes, "Debbie is a self-starter and her experience in working with multiple stakeholders to get a job done is a tremendous asset to the organization. WP&B is pleased to have her on board."

Although Debbie has most recently lived outside of the area, she is no stranger to Waynesburg, Greene County. Debbie's husband, Thomas Mack, is originally from Dry Tavern, the couple has often enjoyed visiting the area to see friends and family. Tom recently accepted a promotion with his company and was transferred back to southwestern Pennsylvania. Debbie and Tom are excited to be back in Greene County and are currently house-hunting.

Debbie is busy familiarizing herself with the internal operations and is looking forward to meeting and working with all the downtown stakeholders, especially the merchants. She is also enthused about applying her skills to refine and implement the organization's marketing plan to attract new and diverse retailers to compliment the existing marketing mix.

Debbie comes to Waynesburg from Southern Illinois, where she was extensively involved in community work and served in Main Street programs in both Murphysboro and Carbondale Illinois. Debbie's work with Main Street as a business stakeholder and volunteer gives her a unique perspective.

Ms. Mack is poised to use her unique combination of skills and talents to continue the efforts that WP&B has made over the past five years. Ms. Mack reports, "I am excited to work with the board of directors to continue to improve the downtown district." Debbie's first priority is to make downtown Waynesburg your destination! The Waynesburg Prosperous & Beautiful office is located at 60 West High Street and is open for business!

"Debbie brings a great business background to the program, something the board was interested in – although a not-for-profit, the organization will benefit from her business perspective to getting the job done."

NEW BUSINESS – "OUR GLASS CREATIONS"

A new specialty shop is open in Waynesburg!

Farmers' Market

The Waynesburg Farmers' Market is having a great 2008 season. Kids' Day was held on June 25th and was sponsored by the Observer Reporter. There were games, prizes and an ambulance for the kids to get into. Also joining in on all the fun was Southwest Regional Medical Center, Penn State Master Gardeners, Big Brothers/Big Sisters and the American Red Cross. The Farmers' Market cookbooks and shopping bags are still available for purchase, plus we have free seed packets, magnets and hand sanitizers.

Mark your calendars for Senior Day on August 27th; we will be giving out free tomato stress balls. September 24th is our Fall Fest and on the last market day, October 15th, will be a "Vendor Only" Yard Sale.

50s Fest & Car Cruise is September 13!
